

Agreement to Provide Debtor Education Services for Individuals in Bankruptcy

This Agreement, is entered into on _____, 2009 between _____, ["Attorney"] and Sage Personal Finance, a California partnership ["Provider"].

Attorney hereby establishes a relationship with Provider whereby Attorney agrees to be liable for charges incurred by his/her clients who use Provider for their bankruptcy debtor education requirement. Provider is a United States Department of Justice approved provider of this financial management course for bankruptcy.

Attorney's clients will be provided access to the course either by [check one or both]:

- Attorney's notice to Provider of the client's status AND/OR
- Clients identifying themselves directly to Provider as coming from Attorney.

Charges: On the first day of each month, Provider will invoice Attorney for the previous month's charges arising from Attorney's clients' use of Provider's course. Charges shall accrue at the rate charged by Provider for the internet course [currently $35 per individual debtor and $35 for married couples filing jointly and taking the internet course; $45 per individual debtor and $45 for married couples filing jointly and taking the mail course or phone course].

Termination: Either Attorney or Provider can terminate this agreement at any time by sending notice to the other party. Attorney will have no liability for clients who seek access to Provider's service after such notice is received. Any amount owed to Provider by Attorney upon termination shall survive such termination.

Law Firm

By: _____
Signature

Printed Name

Number and Street

City, State & Zip

Phone

Email and/or Fax Number

Sage Personal Finance

By: _____
Allison M. Geving, President

4043 Contera Road
Encino, CA 91436
800-516-2759
Fax: 866-268-7774
Email: customerservice@sagepf.com
Website: www.sagepf.com